

Your Name: _____

School Year: _____

Name of Object: _____
Museum/Gallery
Name: _____

POETRY TAKEOVER

Get creative and submit a poem inspired by a museum object or artwork using the theme 'reimagine'.

Choose an object or artwork from this museum (or gallery) that inspires you. Create a poem of no more than 25 lines inspired by the object and relating to the theme 'reimagine'. Think about the different styles of poetry: it could be a haiku, a limerick, free verse, slam, a sonnet, anything!

- Submit your poem and object image from 9 March to 10 May 2022.
- Poetry Takeover is open to anyone in South Australia in school years 4-10.
- For more information, helpful resources or alternative entry options visit <https://poetrytakeover.history.sa.gov.au/>

Getting Started

Once you have found your object use the box below to brainstorm some words about your object. How does it make you feel? What does it make you think about? What does it look, feel or sound like?

Detailed Terms and Conditions for Poetry Takeover can be found at:
<https://poetrytakeover.history.sa.gov.au/the-challenge/#>

Build Your Poem

It is time to practise writing your poem, use the lines below to start working on the first copy of your poem. Think about using rhythm, sound, meaning and imagery to grab the reader's attention.

A large rounded rectangular box containing ten horizontal lines for writing a poem.

Record

You may wish to make a copy of the object that inspired you. Use the box below to draw a sketch of the object or take a photo.

A large rounded rectangular box for drawing a sketch or taking a photo of an object.

Submissions

Remember to enter your poem online at <https://poetrytakeover.history.sa.gov.au/>

